

Praying for Your Spouse

The Apostle Paul recorded two prayers in Ephesians. One is found in Ephesians 1:17-21, and the other in Ephesians 3:14-19. The first is a prayer for Godly wisdom, and the second is a prayer for a revelation of God's love. These are two great prayers to pray for yourself and your spouse.

I give thanks for _____, and I ask that You – the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, would give him/her the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of You, that the eyes of his/her understanding would be enlightened; that he/she would know what is the hope of Your calling, what are the riches of the glory of Your inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of Your power toward us who believe, enough power for us to handle whatever we are facing, the same mighty power which You worked in Christ when You raised Him from the dead and seated Him at Your right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named.

I ask You, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, 16 that You would grant _____, according to the riches of Your glory, to be strengthened with might by Your Spirit in the his/her inner man, and that Christ would dwell in his/her heart through faith; that he/she would be rooted and grounded in Your love, and be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height of your love, and that he/she would know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; and be filled with all the fullness of God.

In Jesus name, Amen!
